Failing!

That is what a great many people are doing. They don't know just what is the matter, but they have a combination of pains and aches, and each month they grow worse.

The only sure remedy yet found is BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and this by rapid and thorough assimilation with the blood purifies and enriches it, and rich, strong blood flowing to every part of the system repairs the wasted tissues, drives out disease and gives health and strength.

This is why BROWN'S IRON BITTERS will cure kidney and liver diseases, consumption, rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, malaria, intermittent fevers, &c.

Mr. Simon Blanchard, a well-known citizen of Hayesville, Meade county, Kentucky, says: "My wife had been sick for a long time and her constitution was all broken down and she was unable to work. She was advised to use Brown's Iron Bitters, and found it to work like a charm. We would not be without it for any consideration, as we consider it the best tonic in the world."

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is not a drink and does not contain whiskey. It is the only preparation of Iron that causes no injurious effects. Get the genuine. Don't be imposed on with imitations.

In Greece the proportion of illiterates is very high. In Thebes and Arcadia only five per cent. of the inhabitants can read and write, and in the parts of the country where education is most general not much over half the population can write. At the same time Greek Universities are said to rank very high. If all accounts of unreduced corruption and robbery in Greek politics be true, the lack of popular education is producing the effects that are naturally to be expected from it.

Railroad Collision—Fatal Accident.
 OAKLAND, July 4.
 A collision occurred last night at 10:30, between the Oakland local and the Alameda local trains. The Oakland train was at the crossing first, behind time a few minutes. The switch-tender saw both trains approaching, and went up the track to signal the Oakland train to stop, but his lamp went out, and four coaches of the Oakland train were badly damaged. The Alameda locomotive was thrown from the track. Three men and one woman were injured, none seriously.

 The Anti-Monopolists in Convention at Chicago—Kearney and Maybell Ruled Out.

CHICAGO, July 5.

About two hundred and fifty delegates responded to the call for the National anti-Monopoly Convention, and they held a session here to-day, which was prolonged well into the night. The original call, outlined as the purpose of the convention, was the organization of a new political party, and delegates were requested to appear who were in favor of the restriction of the power of corporations; the holding of the public lands for actual settlers; the suppression of gambling in the necessities of life, and the overthrow of all monopolies. The proceedings during the forenoon and afternoon sessions were marked by disorder and confusion. The committee on credentials experienced much difficulty in determining who were properly accredited delegates. There was some sharp preliminary sparring on the tariff question, it being soon developed that the New York delegation, which was the strongest and most compact, favored protection, while Nebraska and nearly all other western States' delegations favored free trade. The election of a New York man for permanent chairman was looked upon as a victory for the protectionists. Another contest was provoked over the admission of Denis Kearney and Stephen Maybell of California as delegates, which resulted in the refusal by the convention to recognize them. The meeting was called to order by Edwin Lee Brown of Chicago, who said the delegates had been called together to inaugurate a new Declaration of Independence, one which would relieve them from the power of monopolies, and which was a higher creed than could be found in either the Republican or Democratic party platforms. It was found that the following States were represented: New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Kansas, Colorado, Dakota, California, Missouri, Kentucky and the District of Columbia. Alien Root of Nebraska was chosen temporary Chairman and C. C. Post of Indiana temporary Secretary. Mr. Root on taking the chair said, that the laboring classes of America wanted no free trade, but a tariff based upon right, and not one like that which for 30 years had kept up a mock show of protecting the people, while it has in reality been to them a cost of $400,000,000 yearly. The Committee on Order Business and Permanent Organization was appointed, and the Committee on Credentials reported shortly after the noon recess. When California was reached it was ascertained that the names of Kearney and Maybell had been omitted. The Chairman of the Committee explained, that their credentials had been signed by a local meeting called by themselves, while five other delegates from California had credentials under the call issued for the convention. The Secretary of the convention read various letters and telegrams from anti-monopoly leagues in California, denouncing Kearney as being in the employ of railroads, and at present at the convention in their interests. Mr. Kearney was given an opportunity for explanation. He declared that cheap freight did not benefit laboring classes, as roads represented labor. He contended that roads should be allowed to charge for carrying freights simply in the same terms they paid their laborers. He denounced the anti-monopoly bodies of California which had repudiated him, and declared that they had taken up the anti-monopoly cry to screen their real purposes. The convention, by a strong majority vote, adopted the report excluding Kearney and Maybell. After which, the former announced he would organize a convention of his own. The Committee on Permanent Organization reported in favor of John H. Henry of Brooklyn for permanent Chairman and C. C. Post of Indiana for Secretary. The report was adopted. Mr. Henry spoke of the work accomplished by the Anti-Monopoly League in New York, and expressed a belief that a national organization of like character would result in bringing the monopolists of this country under the control of the people.

Knights of Labor in Session in Illinois.

POLKIA, Ill., July 5.
 The Knights of Labor held their district convention in this city during the past two days, concluding their labors last night. About thirty delegates were in attendance and they were careful not to arouse any suspicion as to what their business was. The convention was held in a private hall and as all were sworn to secrecy it was impossible to learn much of the proceedings. The main objects were to take steps toward equalizing money and the labor interest, to control manufacturers and not allow them to employ boys to do mens work and to blot out monopoly. All this they will do by carrying the State Legislature and electing their candidate for Congress and the United States Senator. Delegates were appointed to a convention to be held in Chicago and Pittsburg. They claim to have great strength all over the country, and similar conventions will be held in all of the States.

The Fourth in the North-west.

CHICAGO, July 5.

Advices from all parts through the North-west indicate a very general observance of the Fourth, though with less in the way of set programme and speech making than usual. In this city there was no formal public celebration. The races at the driving park and four professional ball games furnished sport very inclined people with amusement. As for the remainder of the population, many went to picnics in the country around about and to the parks. A number of illuminated houses and private pyrotechnic displays were seen, and nature herself seemed to be in accord with the general rejoicing. The southern heavens blazed with sheets of vivid lightning and in the west there was a most magnificent display of forked lightning; striking at a central point the bolts radiated in every direction, zigzagging across the sky with great brightness, besides the brilliant green, red, and purple lights of roman candles. The day has been unusually clear from accidents to life or property.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVIETIES.

The steamer Aurora was brought into New York, yesterday, in a disabled condition.

It is now estimated that one hundred and fifty persons were drowned by the sinking of the Daphne.

At an election in Alabama, Tuesday, J. F. Jones (Democrat) was elected to Congress from the First District.

Two children of John Mulborn, aged 6 and 8 years, were burned to death at Joliet, Illa., to-day.

Bishop Pinkney, (Protestant Episcopal,) of the diocese of Maryland, died yesterday.

Trimmed and untrimmed hats are going like hot cakes at Jamison's. He is selling them at cost.

Why is George Becker in his new brewery like a well in Palestine?—Because he brews drink there.

At the depot this morning a GAZETTE reporter overheard a passenger ask a bystander where he could get breakfast at a "non-official" house.

The success of John Sunderland in this community is due to the fact that the people will patronize a firm that keeps A. No. 1 goods, which, being bought for cash, can be sold at a reasonable figure.

The Abrams Brothers of the White House are never heard to complain of dull times. The secret is owing to low prices and first-class goods. Suites for any condition in life can be found at the White House.

The elegantly dressed appearance of all those ladies who went out of town yesterday to enjoy the Fourth was owing to having among us a dry goods establishment like Levy & Bro., on Virginia street. Call in, and if you don't see what you want, ask for it.

There were groceries enough unloaded in front of A. Lindley & Co.'s store this morning to fill almost any other grocery store in the State. Their delivery wagons are kept busy from early morn until late at night. Their wholesale trade is also immense.

Many of those who were poisoned by drinking at third-class dives yesterday, were this morning noted at Chase & Thyes, indulging in antiodotes, in the form of some of their incomparable cocktails and punches, made of the best material ever sold over a bar in Reno.

The wholesale and retail house of Cheilovich & Co., on Commercial Row, continues to receive the liberal patronage due an enterprising a firm. Reno retailers are fast learning that it is more economical to patronize a local wholesale house than to send their money out of the State.

A Nevada Institution.
Canavan, Garhart & Nichols of the Nevada Stables, San Francisco, are making many friends in the livery business and getting their full share of city patronage already; besides doing nearly all the business in that line for the people visiting the city from this State. No finer turnouts can be found on the coast than can be had at the Nevada Stables.

The Red Pocket Book.
A young man named Banks enroute to Washington Territory lost a pocket book as he stepped from the overland express Thursday morning, containing a draft on New York and $150 in greenbacks, besides other very valuable papers. The book containing everything but the money was left at the Depot Hotel yesterday morning.

A Pleasant Resort.
Hon. Jerry Schooling and family and W. P. McLaughlin and family spent a very pleasant Fourth at Steamboat Springs. Schooling won the ten-pin pool by several points, and a very limp shirt-collar indicated the amount of physical exertion required.

Justice Court.
Indian Bob was sent up for 20 days this morning for celebrating yesterday by getting drunk and fighting.

John Sullivan plead guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace and will appear for sentence this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Forgot Something.
W. H. Moger, son of Captain Moger of Reno, has been braving between Oakland and Sacramento. Last week he forgot to take his hand out when making a coupling, and had his fingers bodily mashed up. He will not lose them he thinks.

A Good Traveler.
Talking about old folks traveling, A. J. Smith's father-in-law, Mr. Wheeler, 84 years old, came in on horseback the other day from his home in Idaho, 60 miles away. When he gets his visit, he is going back the same way.

Sacramento Land Mark.

The Red House of Sacramento is nicely settled in the new store which is large enough to display goods and it makes one of the finest stores on the coast. It is 20 by 162 feet, connected with another room of the same size by three large arched openings on the walls. The whole floor with the basement covers 13,000 square feet. There is not a foot of room wasted, but all is filled with clothing and fine dry goods, hats, boots, underwear, table and other linens, etc. The rear end of one room is cosily fitted up for an office for Mr. Gilman, the proprietor, and the other for a millinery room. Both are well lighted and set off the large room to good advantage. The country order department is in the back end of the basement where the largest or smallest order is attended to and shipped promptly without confusion or delay. Leading from that is a box and case room, and from that a ware room full of trunks and valises and a reserve stock of clothing, boots and shoes.

Lumber Cutting.

The saw-mills on the west side are getting nicely started for their Summer's work, and the year promises well. About 25,000,000 feet will be cut in the belt tributary to the Central Pacific. Voss will cut 2,500,000 on the You Bet divide, Carlin will cut about 1,000,000 at Gold Run, Towle Brother's 12,000,000 in their three mills, with the Duguard mill idle. They now have 18 miles of railroad and three engines. They have just moved the Kearsarge mill and got it running. Gelsenderfer will cut 1,000,000 in Onion Valley, back of Emigrant Gap. Friend & Terry will cut 1,000,000 in Monument Canyon. Marsh will cut 2,000,000 on Rock Creek, above Nevada City, and Cooper 1,000,000 on Deer Creek.

A New Station.

The Central Pacific has opened a station a little way above Alta, and named it Towle's. The Towle Brothers are almost the only shippers, and Allan Towle has been appointed agent. He is not dependent on the saw-mill business entirely, as his salary will probably be between $25 and $40 a month.

Mr. Towle has built a nice home and moved his family to the new place. His large factory is located here, as well as the big pulp mill, in which he and his brothers own the controlling interest. It is also the end of their railroad to their saw-mills. Towle's is the best station between Truckee and Sacramento, as far as shipping goes.

Peacemaker.

A good dinner soothes life's little troubles. The ladies of the W. C. T. U. set out an excellent one yesterday, and it seemed to be highly appreciated, as crowds were coming and going all day long. The ladies must have put in several hard days to get up such a dinner, and it was certainly a hard day's work to serve it up. Mrs. Leete, Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Simpson and others waited on the guests, while Mrs. Sessions tended door and held the money. The society made about $70 by the dinner.

She Fainted Away in His Arms.

About 2 o'clock this afternoon a commotion occurred on Commercial Row, the cause of which was somewhat hard to ascertain. Men who hurried along thought there might be a fire, but did not know. Women and children were too excited to give any information, and the real cause was not discovered until reaching Jamison's dry goods store, which was so crowded with customers (on account of the great sale going on there) that a lady had fainted, almost causing a panic.

Slightly Energizing.

The hot weather continues. The Silver State of Tuesday says: "Yesterday at 1:30 p. m. the thermometer at the depot, in front of the freight office, stood at 102°, and other thermometers in town indicated a temperature of 106°. To-day, though by no means cool, is not so hot as yesterday." How many blankets do you sleep under, brother Kelley?

Drowned in a Barrel of Water.
The little 2-year-old son of John Dillon was drowned yesterday at Bronco in a barrel of water. The barrel was set in the ground and the little fellow fell in head first. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, from the residence of Patrick Keating, in the Western Addition.

Insane Patient Discharged.
Mrs. W. N. Mills of Candelaria, who has been a patient at the Insane Asylum for the past six months was discharged yesterday morning and accompanied her husband to their home. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mills tender their hearty congratulations.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of the little two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dillon, will take place to-morrow at 2 o'clock from the residence of Patrick Keating. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

Thomas Higgins, for many years an attache of the Mint at Carson, returned from the Bay this morning, on his way to the Capital.

Sam Whitehead and other members of the firm of Kellip & Co., pool sellers, passed west Tuesday night, returning home from Chicago.

Senator T. B. Rickett of Douglas county went out to the eastern part of the State this morning, on a tour of observation among his herds of beef cattle.

R. D. Kelley, formerly of the brokers firm of Kelley & Hofer, and at present Secretary of the Justice and other Comstock mines, was a passenger for the Bay yesterday.

Miss Redfield and Miss Mansfield of Benicia, Cal., who have been visiting their kinsmen, Major Worth, at Camp McDermitt, were on yesterday's train bound home.

R. L. Thomas, who for many sessions was an attache of the Nevada Legislature, and more recently City Attorney of Virginia, paid Reno a flying visit yesterday morning.

Geo. W. Bryant, melter and refiner at the Carson mint, went below yesterday. Mr. Bryant will visit where he expects to make his future home, Riverside, before returning.

Solomon Reinhart, who, with his two brothers made a nice little fortune in trade at Elko and Winnemucca, and who is now in business in San Francisco, went west yesterday.

Henry Sharp, a Carson raised boy and for a long time in the employ of Wells, Fargo & Co., is now one of their messengers between Reno and San Francisco. Henry is a good egg and is "credit to his worthy progenitors."

HUMBOLDT COUNTY.

Mining and Crop Prospects in Northern Humboldt.

D. H. Haskell, town site agent for the Central Pacific, who has recently paid a visit to the Rebel Creek mines, in the northern part of Humboldt county, informs the GAZETTE that considerable intelligent prospecting is being done in that locality. H. H. McCally is running three eight-hour shifts on the Virginia lode, and the Snapp boys and Joe McCally were shipping three car-loads of ore to the reduction works at Salt Lake, the rate was $800 per ton. Mr. Haskell also says that the crops on Quin river and in Paradise valley never promised as well as this year; a good market being the farmer's only need.

Again on Deck.

N. C. Hammertmith has again opened a first-class barber shop on Commercial Row. He can be found at the Wine House, where he will be pleased to meet all his old patrons, whether they want a shave or not. Nick is a first-class barber, as everybody knows. He has taken a somewhat extended vacation, but couldn't stay away, so he returns to his first and only love to make a home and see it out. He is not bashful and will tell you the rest himself.

The Fourth in Virginia.

The six car-loads of Reno people who went to Virginia yesterday were greatly pleased with their treatment by the Comstockers. The Reno Guards were especially profuse in their expressions of their liberal and hospitable entertainment by the Comstock military. Quite a number did not return until this morning, having remained over to attend the church festival held last evening.

A Wet Day for Picnics.

About 40 ladies and gentlemen went to Dog Valley yesterday to spend the day. The shower in the afternoon dampened them to the skin, and they returned late last evening highly pleased with the time spent in the forenoon, but the rain was a little too wet for comfort in the afternoon.

That Old Flag.

The old flag which was purchased by the ladies of Crystal Peak and raised by M. J. Smith, Emory and others 19 years ago to-day, was yesterday floating over the business place of Jim Foxwell at Verdi.

Rainy Days.

Many of the pleasure seekers who left town yesterday by private conveyance returned through the rain last evening with the starch pretty well taken out of their bibs and tucker.

Another Shower.

Yesterday afternoon and again last evening this locality was visited with more thunder showers, cooling and moistening the air most beautifully.

A Valuable Dog Killed.

A valuable Gordon setter belonging to R. Smith, Wells-Fargo's agent at this place, was run over and killed this morning by a "wild" engine from Truckee. The dog was a very valuable one, and Mr. Smith is inconsolable.

A Chicago Merchant's Experience.
After I had become fatigued skin and bone with neither strength, appetite nor ambition left and the doctors couldn't help me, two bottles of Parker's Ginger Tonic cured me completely. M. B. Westcott, Lamp Mfr., Chicago.

The best Spring medicine known is that wonderful tonic, Brown's Iron Bitters.

The Hotels in No Danger.

The railroad men say there is no prospect of dining cars being put on the Central and Southern Pacific roads. The Union may put them on to stand off the opposition but they will not come west of Ogden.
